"Building People, Building Family"

Group Day Support

Fun, skill-building days filled with friendship, creativity, and community.

Serving individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD) in Virginia, USA

OUR PROGRAM

What is Group Day Support?

Our Group Day Support program offers engaging, skill-based days for adults of varying abilities in a safe, supportive setting. Participants build confidence, social skills, and real friendships, while still living at home or with their families.

Who can benefit?

Adults (18+) with intellectual or developmental disabilities who want support with daily living, friendships, and community life, plus students getting ready to graduate and their families.

Key benefits

- ✓ New friendships and stronger social skills
- ✓ Life skills like cooking, budgeting, and personal care
- ✓ Confidence through creative, therapeutic activities
- ✓ A person-centered plan for each participant

NEW! For Students & Families

Free Transitional Planning Meetings help students with IDD prepare for life after graduation. A dedicated Transitional Liaison reviews needs, strengths, and medical history, then connects families with adult services and local resources. Plus, clinical specialists offer assessments before graduation.

A DAY FULL OF GROWTH

What We Offer

- 1 Gaming Haven
Consoles, PCs & virtual reality in a safe, inclusive space to practice social and coping skills.
- 2 Music Therapy
Explore self-expression and creativity in our in-house music studio.
- 3 Art Therapy
Painting, drawing, sculpting & collaging, plus local art exhibitions and craft fairs.
- 4 Community & Volunteering
Regular outings and volunteer projects that build confidence and belonging.

Can we come visit?

Yes! Tours are available by appointment. Call or email us to schedule a visit and get directions.

Is it covered by Medicaid?

Coverage varies. Some individuals qualify through Medicaid under the Community Living (CL) Waiver or other government funding; others use private insurance. Call us to explore your options.
