Group Home Residential

A safe, caring place to call home, where every resident can grow, connect, and thrive.

Serving individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD) in Virginia, USA

OUR PROGRAM

What is Group Home Residential?

Our ID/DD group homes provide a safe, supportive, community-based home where adults are empowered to build independence. Each resident receives personalized care, daily support from trained staff, and plenty of chances to grow, connect, and enjoy life.

Who we serve

Adults (18+) with intellectual and developmental disabilities who need structured residential support, and families looking for a caring home for their loved one.

What's included

- ✓ Individualized care plans
- ✓ Help with daily living and life skills
- ✓ Medication management and medical care support
- ✓ Community outings, volunteering, and cultural events

OUR GROUP HOME LOCATIONS

A Place to Call Home

- 1 Comfortable living spaces
Bedrooms and shared living spaces to relax, connect, and feel at home.
- 2 Home-cooked meals
Residents select and share meals and build cooking and life skills.
- 3 Close to the community
Easy outings to shops, parks, and events in the community.
- 4 Caring, trained staff
Ongoing support with daily living, health, and personal goals.
